

WORLD LEADERSHIP DAY 2008

'Inspire the Youth of the World'

For Immediate Release

Sydney, Australia (March 12)

Now in its second year, World Leadership Day 2008 is being celebrated concurrently in six countries around the globe – Australia, Canada, France, Germany, Singapore and South Africa -- under the leadership of passionately engaged WLD Ambassadors, aligned with the WLD vision, says Wellington-based Elisabeth Gortschacher, founder and leader of WLD.

WLD Vision: a world that recognises engages and nurtures the expression of the innate leadership in every person.

Join us for the 2008 World Leadership Day

'Inspire the Youth of the World'

At the Stamford Plaza Double Bay, Sydney Australia

20 March 2008

WLD 2008 marks a significant occasion as we present the inaugural WLD Award and host an inspiring and engaging Open Space Event

"Wild Horses...inspired leadership...
Creative and engaging environment for extraordinary results"

Suzanne Leone Mercier, Business Alchemy International, will deliver the Keynote 'Inspire the Youth of the World' and present the inaugural WLD Award to the Winner* of the 2008 WLD Essay Competition.

The OS event will be facilitated by Fleur Dwyer and Barb Seaton, OneCoaching, to evoke the best from leaders.

*38 Schools across regional and metropolitan NSW were invited to participate in the 2008 WLD Essay competition. The winner of the WLD Award will receive a $250 Voucher and will be featured with the sponsoring School in the 2008 Global WLD E-book.

To learn more about WLD and register for the event visit www.worldleadershipday.org Registration closes Friday 14 March 2008

For more information, contact Elisabeth Gortschacher, E.E.G. Coaching Pty Ltd, via e-mail at: elisabeth@eeg-coaching.com.au or at 1800 334 908 (national free call).