

WORLD LEADERSHIP DAY 2010

Theme: 'New Horizons of Leadership'

For Immediate Release

Wellington, NSW

Wellington, the home of World Leadership Day, proudly invites people from all walks of life, cultures and ages from 16 years to - no upper limit – from its local community, from across the region, state and interstate - to join our vibrant 2010 World Leadership Day Celebration on March 20 in Wellington, NSW.

World Leadership Day 2010 is actively supported by Wellington Council, Wellington Development Inc, the Committee of Binjang Community Radio and the Wellington Times.

Leadership determines everything! World Leadership Day's vision is a world that recognises, engages and cultivates the innate leader in every person.

"The World Leadership Day is about raising awareness and celebrating grass-root leadership – your personal leadership in everyday life," says Elisabeth Gortschacher, local resident and founder of WLD. "It's about inspiring and be inspired by each other and engaging in light-hearted conversations about how you and we collectively want and can lead and live our lives in a rapidly changing world."

WLD, now in its 4th year is concurrently celebrated in numerous countries around the world. The founder's aim is to have the WLD vision embraced in 50 countries by the end of 2012.
